The Bankers Supplied Hitler

From Labor, organ of the Railroad Brotherhoods

For many, many years Lord Vansittart was a high-ranking "civil servant", and was, therefore, in a position to acquire inside knowledge of what was going on in Britain—politically, financially, and diplomatically. He retired after this war started and King George rewarded him with a seat in the House of Lords.

Now Lord Vansittart is sponsoring a drastic program to shackle Prussian militarism. Space will not permit a review of all his proposals, but one point needs to be stressed.

How was Hitler able to finance the war machine he has used to terrorize the world? Vansittart's answer is that British and other international bankers loaned him $7,000,000,000! The money was raised by selling German securities to investors in Britain, the United States, and other democratic nations, and now practically all those securities are in default. Mussolini was financed in the same way.

If the bankers had not advanced these enormous loans, this dreadful war would not have occured, because the champions of fascism would not have been able to enslave the people of their own countries and prepare for the subjugation of the rest of the world.

Editor's Note— Readers of THE BROOM are not at all surprised at the disclosures of Lord Vansittart, as published in Labor. They have read previously in our paper that Hitler was financed by the Rothschild interests, through "the bankers" to get him armed and start the war. Once Hitler was armed, then all nations EVERYWHERE in the world would have to arm, too, and look how that would play into the hands of the bankers who would sell bonds, $1000 for 8c, to the treasuries of all governments where they hold the monopoly of "financing" the governments who dare not print their own currency without a PERMIT from the bankers, to whom they MUST sell the printed currency at 8c per $1000. The Rothschilds have again and again sent the boys to fight on foreign soil. They started that profitable business when they supplied the King with Hessians to fight George Washington and have been at it ever since. Now they are POOR REFUGEES in these U. S. A. General Butler said that first the bankers make investments, then they send U. S. soldiers to collect and foreclose the mortgage.

NO WAR, NO PROFITS!

BANK CHARGED WITH HELPING HITLER

NEW YORK— The Rockefeller-dominated Chase Natl. Bank, cornerstone of America's second greatest financial empire, was indicted by a federal grand jury on charges of conspiracy and violating the trading with the enemy act. It was accused of plotting with a Dutch dealer to supply the Axis with industrial diamonds, essential in the manufacture of precision tools and special war instruments.

Allegedly, the powerful Wall Street banking house transferred blocked Axis funds to finance Leonard J. A. Smit, millionaire agent for an Antwerp firm with Nazi connections, in smuggling diamonds to the enemy through an Italian airline. Named as co-conspirators with Smit and the Chase bank were two Japanese banks, a Japanese and Swiss firm and a Panama corporation used as a front.

ANTI-SEMITISM

By Dr. Louis G. Reynolds

(Calif. Jewish Voice, L. A., Jan. 28, 1944)

Nazism and its attendant virulent and uncompromising anti-Semitism, are not the creations of the one man Hitler, as believed by most people. This contemptible and murderous gangster, was merely a willing pawn in a dark and sinister game, played behind a thousand screens, by the boldest crew of plotting industralists, bankers and a motley assortment of so-called financial wizards. The unholy cabal, which brought Hitler to the front, was not concocted by Germans alone, although they were the ones to initiate and later to direct it. There were, of course, the Krupps, the Thyssens, the German Steel and Dyestuffs Trusts and all their subsidiaries to represent the German financial hierarchy. There was however also Deterding, the Anglicized Dutch oil magnate. There was Montague Norman with the Bank of England and the Vickers-Armstrong munitions interests to represent the high-finance of Britain. Then there came the enormous interests of the French Comite de Forges; the Swedish interests, as represented by the embezzler Kreuger and the enormous holdings of our American high-finance—all of them boosted by an international chain of newspapers, highly paid propagandizers and interlocking cartels.

Editor's Note: Now the truth is coming out. We always have boldly stated that the House of Rothschild has fomented wars in Europe since Amshel Mayer made his pile by sending mercenaries to America to fight the colonists under George Washington. Now a Jew, writing in a Jewish paper, says it, too, in so many words. The present war, evidently, was started by the same financial wizzards, when they set up Hitler and incited him to persecute the Jews that it may arouse America against Germany, and everything worked out according to protocol. The Broom is being kept in various universities on file. History will show that the same crowd which financed Hitler also financed the New Deal and Willkie.

WHY de ARYAN WAS INDICTED

By Jack White in the S. W. Jewish Press, San Diego, 2-3-44

We of the San Diego labor movement who were the first to demand action against C. Leon de Aryan, our biggest local fascist and anti-Semite, ought to find out why he was not re-indicted with the rest of his un-American associates.

It's my opinion that San Diego Labor also ought to get behind the Lynch-Dickstein Bills, now pending in Congress, which would make it unlawful to send anti-Semitic literature through the mail.

No-Union Vote Biggest In Douglas Aircraft Election

SANTA MONICA— The largest share of ballots cast in a Douglas aircraft plant labor bargaining election, 39.7 per cent, favored no union, a NLRB official announced.

The C. I. O. United Auto Workers' union was second with 34.3 percent and the A.F.L. International Association of Machinists third with 26 percent. A runoff election between no-union and the C.I.O. will be held in 10 days.

THAT SMELLY NAME

Walter Winchell complained in a recent broadcast about Congressman Rankin's announcement on the floor of the House, that Winchell was not his true name. "What's the difference?" asked Winchell. "What does it matter what name one had?"

Poor Winchell, his name was prophetic. Providence gave him the right moniker when he was born 'Lipschitz', for everytime he opens his mouth out comes that famous Jergen's smell.

Win the War Against the 4th Term !

The most recklessly outspoken publication against Mr. Roosevelt's rule and ruin administration is acknowledgly THE BROOM, in San Diego. It's editor even dared hold to this policy when he was transported to Washington and kept in jail, in an effort to terrorize him. His own attorney asked him to sign away the liberty of the press in a statement addressed to the Department of Justice and inspired by A. L. Wirin of the American Civil Liberties Union, in which the editor promised to quit his policy of saying what he thought of the "case" of transporting him to Washington when local juries refused to indict him of "sedition". But the editor refused to sign and fired the court appointed attorney, by asking him to present his resignation to the court.

You know as truly as you know you are alive, that if FDR is "elected" a fourth time, the way he was "drafted" and elected the 3rd time, he will claim that the people gave him a mandate to draft every man, woman and child for forcible labor. Every time he gets elected he has a new "mandate".

Well, is he going to get away with it this time?

It costs me $60 a week to carry on the expense of physical production of this paper, by paying that much in cash to the printer. Then I have to fold the papers by hand, in which Fred helps me and mails them out. We have to pay the P. O. for mailing. We have to maintain a car and I have to pay rent and eat.

We have at present about 1,000 paid subscribers. We print 1,150 papers weekly. 52 weeks at $60 means $3120 a year. 1,000 subscriptions at $2.50 gives us 2,500 a year. Advertising brings about $150 a year. This leaves us with a handsome deficit and nothing to eat on.

You know quite well that as long as advertisers are afraid of reprisals this paper does not enjoy the free press guarantee of the constitution. As Americans you are as much attacked in your rights as this paper is, because the idea is to terrorize you, by terrorizing us. And some are terrorized and you know it, too. But I am not terrorized. On the contrary, the harder they push us the harder we push back. So, there it's up to you. Send us donations every time you can, because donations take the place of advertising revenue.

Real Purpose of War

"The American people have to learn to understand unerringly that the real goal of this war, and the only goal worthy of its sacrifices, is the establishment of just peace.

"For as surely as the earth turns, force and violence shall be the law; and wars of cataclysmic destruction shall be the penalty; and blood and tears shall be the inheritance of that people who neglect to learn and to teach that the earth has grown smaller, that all men on it are fundamentally alike, that no human being need now lack food or shelter, and that science has made it necessary for men to live at peace if they want to live at all."

"Education and the People's Peace",
Education Policies Commission.

Editor's Note: The above appeared in the Jan. 14 Superintendent's Bulletin of the San Diego City Schools. It is pure War Propaganda. Churchill and Stalin have informed us that they have no intention whatever to sacrifice their territorial possessions or ambitions. They even told Willkie to keep his nose out of it. Russia will run its war as it pleases and do in Europe as it pleases. But "Education Policies Commission" continues its propaganda which is as effective "everywhere in the world" as a snowball in hell. It fools only the American suckers.

Is Churchill Through ?

TWILIGHT OF A GOD ?

WASHINGTIN, D. C.— Churchill, rewarded with a dukedom, will retire from the premiership before long, according to Constantine Brown, whose column in the Washington Evening Star has become the most significant column in the nation's capital since the passing of Alsop and Kintner. Brown also reports that Churchill will hand over the reins of premiership to the present Chancellor of the Exchequer, Sir John Anderson. Other reports in the capital confirm Brown's statement.

If true, these reports forecast a new political pattern to conform to a new foreign policy for Britain, forecast by F. A. Voigt, and as outlined by General Smuts. Britain again as in 1939, when Chamberlain began to change from "appeasement" to "resistance", is engaged in a highly interesting wheeling movement.

The balance of power in Europe, as usual, lies at the bottom of this movement. When any power or coalition of powers threaten Britain by aspirations to dominate the continent—as Russia seems to be doing today—then British spokesmen announce a new motif, and alterations in the political set-up follow.

There are good practical reasons for such changes now. Churchill was long a precious asset to the British ruling class for his ability, as many of them put it, "to handle Roosevelt". With his recent conflict of view with the President at the Cairo and Teheran conferences, and with the new "honeymoon" between Roosevelt and Stalin in full swing, Churchill seems to have lost his usefulness.

He may well be ill and tired, and that may provide the convenient exit door. Or his illness may merely offer an excuse for the Tories to relegate him to political Valhalla. In any case, a new front must be formed for the security of England and the Empire.

MINEOLA, N. Y.— Asserting that President Roosevelt was not only a candidate for a fourth term, but "for life", Rep. John Jennings (Tenn) averred here that the next presidential election will be a choice "between the republic and a dictatorship".

Jennings, speaking before the Nassau county Republican committee convention, warned that if Roosevelt is re-elected "rotation in the presidency will have perished; we will have a sucession and an end to the republic George Washington established".

PRIMARIES ON MAY 16

With passage by the California legislature of a measure advancing date of the national-state-county primary to May 16, San Diego political activity is accelerated. The May election will combine the presidential primary, originally set for May 2, and the state primary, slated for August 29.

On the ballots will be delegates to national conventions, candidates for U. S. senator, congressmen, state assembly, superior court judges, and county supervisors.

The earlier date has made necessary filing of declaration of intention to run for the bench between Feb. 7 and 11, with nomination papers to be filed between Feb. 16 and March 11. Terms of Judge Charles C. Haines, L. N. Turrentine, and Jacob Weinberger, all of whom are expected to seek re-election, expire next year.

Nominations will be made in the primary for the U. S. senator seat held by Sheridan Downey; local district congressman, now Ed V. Izac; and for three state assembly posts held by Charles W. Stream, Fred H. Kraft and Kathryn T. Niehouse.

Supervisors' terms expiring are those of Walter Bellon, David H. Bird and John W. Faddis, with candidates required to file between Feb. 16 and March 11. .

County central committees also will be elected in the May primary.

Registration closes 40 days before election, and thousands of San Diegans not yet qualified face loss of voting privileges, County Clerk J. B. McLees warned in urging immediate steps be taken to qualify for the primary voting.

JEW LIBEL LAWS

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

Am enclosing $2.50 for a year's subscription to my brother — — —

Wish you would start it with the copy of Jan. 3, '44, as I would like him to have that one.

Last Friday, a. m. on the 6:30 news report, I heard on station K. E. C. A. that sending any articles aginst Jews thru the mails, was punishable by $10,000 fine or 5 years in prison. Does that mean that the people's mail is to be opened and censored?

Haven't heard a word about it since then, so I suppose it was suppressed.

Am enclosing an article by Senator Wheeler, that may interest you.

Sincerely yours, — — —

Editor's Note: "Jew Libel" laws have not as yet been passed by Congress. If they pass, anti-Semitism will spread by leaps and bounds. Nobody proposes libel laws to protect the Quakers, because Quakers are kindly and honest.

We Must Solve The Jewish Problem

These past two weeks I had some very interesting experiences. Some people keep on writing me that recently THE BROOM has become a personal diary. It always has been, and we never change to please the public We know what we are doing and why. You try and do the work we are doing and you will find out how long YOU are going to last, so, therefor, we accept no judgment except from a peer.

When you will stand up and take the gaff I took for the life time that I have put in on this planet, and still hold your own and not deviate from principle, then, I'll take my hat off to you and submit to your judgment. But most people who criticise me run at the first sign of danger, they "peter out" like Peter in the court yard.

What is it that gives value to life? The love of your dear ones! All life is personal. These "great" fellows who live an "impersonal" life are four-flushers. There is no impersonal life. All of life revolves around YOUR PERSON, for you. When your person is out of it, there life stops for you, here. Even religion is personal. It is your personal faith, no personal faith, no religion, no God. Some people are bored by personal biographies, others are intent on following the impulses that make us strong enough to withstand the hardest assaults. And in time of war, this psychological study is one of the most fascinating things.

What makes me stand out against Jewish persecution, and still not hate them, while not giving in one iota? Jews have persecuted and have been persecuted ever since they established as the law of their life, the formula of tooth for tooth and an eye for an eye. My personal reactions to outside impulses demonstrate the solution to the Jewish problem. Some of you might not have realized why I was bringing in my "personal diary", but if you study that diary you will find your way through this chaos and come up on top, as I alwas do. If you dare risk as much as I do, here you have the proof how you can win.

When I recently brought in Marion Fay into the picture, I did so deliberately. She represents one of our modern problems. She is attempting to solve the Jewish problem, like FDR is solving the Communist problem, by surrender. I am disproving the necessity of abject surrender. Why surrender to the Devil?

We MUST solve the Jewish problem. It has been thrown squarely into our lap. This nation of ours is the SAVIOR nation. Here we have to solve ALL problems and the rest of the world will pattern after us.

Egypt, Spain, Rome, Babylon, Russia, Germany, all of them have tackled the Jewish problem. At first they surrendered to Jewish domination, then they turned around and used violence against the Jews. Both methods are futile. In the U. S. A. we have walked half that path already. WE HAVE SURRENDERED our government and our industrial-finance to Jewish control. Now the reaction has started to set in. What will the result be?

Two weeks ago I decided to call on the new secretary of the Masonic Temple, in the old Elks building, which the Masons took over. I had never visited with him before. James Remick recognized me immediately.

"How do you happen to know me?" was my question.

"You don't remember, but I was in the audience at the San Diego Hotel when the Silvershirts assaulted you and threw you out of the Sun room because you stood up for the Jews, de Aryan", said Remick.

"Oh, my Lord! So you were there?"

"Yes, I was present. They had a traveling lecturer come through and you got into an argument with him."

"My goodness, Remick, if anybody ever charges me with anti-Semitism again, I guess I'll call you up as my witness".

"I shall certainly be glad to testify to what I had seen, de Aryan".

So, there you are. The Silvershirts attempted to "solve" the Jewish problem. I am opposed to their method of solution, as vigorously as I am opposed to this Jewish, ACTUAL dictatorship over us.

Last week I met my friend Jane again, she informed me that she, too, is a Canadian but she placed the emphasis on a naturalized Canadian, who does not regard FDR as our monarch to whom we owe allegiance, in place of the Constitution. She told me that she is having continual arguments with people over me. Some want to know why I am always asking for money when I am conducting a newspaper business. She said she told them that I was doing religious work through THE BROOM, and was "worthy of my hire", by taking up collections like the Catholic and all other churches.

ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES
HEILBRON ELECTRICAL CO., 866 Sixth Ave., Franklin 7847.

"I'll give you a better answer, Jane, even though yours applies as well. If the Jews would not terrorize my advertisers and thus curtail my natural revenue, which I otherwise would have, I would be in the newspaper business, and the business would pay its way. But since the Jews are terrorizing us and we must admit they do RULE US, commercially and through the Roosevelt administration, the FBI, etc, then, instead of conducting a newspaper business, I am fighting for the principle of FREEDOM in our own country and all who want me to win are bound to help me win, because I am fighting THEIR battles."

"I'll tell them", said Jane.

The way way we are going to solve the Jewish problem will determine whether the United States avoids a bloody revolution or goes through a process, and blood bath, similar to Spain during the Inquisition, Russia during the revolution, Germany under Hitler and up to date, when this war is being waged.

It is my "job" to foresee what is coming and prepare for it. That is why I was sent here by "headquarters". My business is to avoid, or at least minimize violence, as much as it lies within human power to exert an ennobling influence.

Marion Fay is interested in exactly that same problem. Hence you get so much Marion Fay in this paper. But her method differs radically from mine and the comparison illustrates the two trends AT PRESENT working in our country. She claims that by completely surrendering to the Jews and never saying a bad word against them, is the best solution and LEAVING IT TO GOD TO PROTECT US. That's why she mistakes Judge Samuel Rosenman for the "Holy Ghost of Inspiration", at the White House.

I emphatically and loudly disagree with this method. I maintain that her method is the surest and shortest path to blood-pogroms. If we surrender our government and permit the Jews to take over bodily and establish an autocracy under FDR, the havoc already done will be so accentuated that the people will despair of lawful remedy and turn against the Jews, as they have done in Egypt, Spain, Babylon, Russia and Germany and rabble rousers, who promise to do away with Jews by force, will come to power.

I propose to solve the Jewish problem by fearless adherence to our Bill of Rights and make the Jews obey it, too. Violent retaliation never won anything. Even our war against England was useless, for today we are spending more to protect the British Empire than England itself is spending in men and product-power. We are doing more for the "mother country" than any other colony. That should be lesson enough that NO PROBLEM can be solved by force, because it is never solved till it is solved rightly.

By my method I protest most forcibly against any encroachment on my rights. I am the guinea pig. I, as an individual citizen, and I, as an editor. Around my person revolves this war on the home front for the guarantee of the Bill of Rights. If the Jews are stupid enough to deprive me of the effective protection of the Bill of Rights by boycott and terror through the White House demand that I be persecuted by fake indictments and arrest, then the Jews are tearing to pieces that same Bill of Rights under which their own racial, religious and individual rights are safeguarded, and they'll take the consequences.

By steadfastly standing with the Bill of Rights, I open the way for a lawful solution of the Jewish problem. Wise Jews will follow my standard for their own protection, for there is no other way of correct settlement of the Jewish problem. You all know that I am telling the truth and that I am man enough to convict the criminal Jews, as Jesus was man enough to convict them Some say that I am elevating myself to the stature of a second Jesus Christ. I don't, it is the Jews who make a martyr of me But I will follow the standard of our Savior, for ours is to be the Savior Nation and WE ALL must follow that standard or eternally be engaged in fratricide.

NEW DEAL TURNED CONSERVATIVE

WASHINGTON— Although President Roosevelt has appointed seven of the nine members of the Supreme court, his intimates are deeply disappointed at the high tribunal's behavior. Its gradual dissolution into blocs has disclosed that the conservatives enjoy a majority over the liberals.

Oddly enough, the acknowledged leader of the reactionaries happens to be Felix Frankfurter, one of F. D. R.'s pals and the most listened to of his advisers. Others of this group are Chief Justice Harlan F. Stone, Associate Justices Owen J. Roberts, Frank Murphy and R. H. Jackson. Even if sometimes there is a shift in the alignment on decision day, this quintet usually acts as one. The jurists resent, however, suggestions that they "follow Frankfurter". They assert that he tags after them.—Ray Tucker.

Editor's Note: We have explained again and again that since the looters got their loot, after ruining individual American businessmen, now the New Deal is turning conservative to keep the loot.

OUR GROUNDHOG WORLD

By GEORGE CARTWRIGHT

Education

"Nicholas Murray Butler, head of the educational cartel, Columbia University, N.Y.City, capital $230,346,430.39", is quoted by LaFollette's Progressive:

"The ideal industrial life of the U. S. is typically represented by the striking careers of Andrew Carnegie and John D. Rockefeller." The editorial then reminds readers of the brutal massacre of steel workers at Homestead, Pa., in 1892, and the women and children burned to death at Ludlow, Colo., in 1914 Rockefeller mine strike.

Slavery

America abolished chattel slavery, the most decent kind, and retained the two most abominable, viz, mortgage and wage slavery. Mortgageholders are slave-holders. If sick and cannot meet payments due, the sheriff visits them with eviction papers, while the chattel slave may have a doctor or at least a veterinary. The outlook is this war will wipe out mortgage slavery. Wage slavery may be abolished by taking taxes out of prices and collecting land rent as revenue, giving workers Free Land without cost except for improvements thereon.

Tobacco

In his new book. "Facts and Fascism", Geo. Seldes states:

"But the American press and radio—at least 99 per cent of each—have suppressed the facts, scientifically established, that the more tobacco a person uses the earlier he dies. Tobacco impairs the health of all users, moderate and heavy. But tobacco companies spend fortunes—four (Camels, Lucky Strikes, Chesterfields and Old Golds) spend $50,000,000 annually—to keep the Ameriacn public in ignorance."

The Mazdaznan Ambassador

The most mysterious things are the most natural things. There is nothing more mysterious than your being alive, having a human body that responds to your will and does things for you; thinks, feels, talks as you will it; that you are sitting, walking, perched on a ball of matter, the planet, that revolves in sunshine at the proper temperature, so the body does not burn or freeze. Just look at this miracle of the planet in endless space and you on it, now. And what next? How long?

But its all so natural! Commonplace!

Exactly as natural as it is to me that I have learned to love all people as children of Our Father. I always wanted to. Was born in the LEO sign, the sign of Infinite Love, to have all the facilities for doing it and now it's done. You are going to read a letter below from a Mazdaznan friend who acts as an unbelieving Thomas. But now, that it's done, it's the most natural thing in the world to me. Only a few weeks ago I woke up in the morning, every morning, with a nightmare pain, "I lost her", for the last impetus in this Love-Life, was Blondie. By loving her I learned to love Roosevelt as truly as she loves him. You know, "love me, love my dog", and for her sake I learned to love the Jews, as she loves them. I lost her, but I did not lose my achievement of loving the two worst and most rotten enemies we have. This is an achievement.

That is why Blondie came into my life, to teach me to love her as I never loved anybody before, and then love those she loved.

And now I am at peace with myself, with the world, with God. Now, that Blondie broke her pledge to stick it out with me in the Christ service, I fell back on the Christ and the wounds of broken faith have healed, but the power to love, even one's enemies, has increased.

It is so simple so natural, so powerful. One fears nobody anymore, fears no future. The future becomes clear, because, you see, everybody is in the family.

The black sheep are in the family as well as the white. We love them all and this power of love enables us to bear and forbear. And with it comes wisdom. We understand why this one and that one does what they do.

Churchill, Hitler, Hirohito, FDR, Stalin, Chiang-Kai-Shek who today tower in this world, all of them are black sheep. They worship force and violence and they cannot win the Kingdom of God by force and violence.

The planet rotates. Gengis Khan came and went. Roosevelt came and soon will go, but the family of God which built the universes and the planet, too, continues to spread its Love upon All. Hate produces misery and death, but Love heals all.

This is the Mazdaznan message. And, of course, the details apply to the detailed occurences in our daily lives and everything is well ordered, for Our Father is Love Infinite and His Wisdom rules supreme, even in detail.

Who Are God's Elect ?

Dear Friend:

Inclosed find $10.00 to keep the wolf from the door. Would have sent it last week, but lost my job and had to hunt me first another one. I found one but it pays $10.00,a week less at least for a while. In the long run it should be better than the old one though.

So you are Mazdaznan Ambassador at large now. Self-styled and self-elected or how? Whose place are you taking, or do you start creating jobs and titles like FDR now? Are you not worried the temple crowd in L. A. might sue you for stealing their trade name, for I am dead sure they did not elect you. That part does not bother me the least of course, but personally I don't think you are following in the footsteps of Dr. Hanish. He was always strictly against dissemination of occult knowledge and declared that any revelation coming from "Infinitude" which could not be substantiated, was a matter between the receiver and his Creator and had to remain such, while only the tangible things were for the multitudes.

I disagreed with him on this point for a long time, but can see his point today.

How come while you claim a new prerogative in Mazdaznan you let its symbol, the sun recede on your paper in the back ground while you put the "Rose Cross" in front. I wish you would explain to me why?

I see you turned numerologist over night. It is one of the easiest studies and I think it helped the Jews a lot to their present world controlling position. As it can be twisted in the most different ways it suited them especially well.

"BE HAPPY AND OF GOOD CHEER ! ! ! " — —

Good Samaritan Took The Job

My Dear Doubting Thomas:

Thanks for the contribution to my defense fund, and your letter. Both are very timely and useful.

It is very interesting to observe how minds like yours, too, miss the essence and question the details. I am quite sure you, with all your studies of Mazdaznan, have very peculiar notions about what constitutes an Ambassador. You are in the same position as organized labor, organized medicine, organized churches. You question the right of a man to emply himself at the work he is best suited to do. You ask for his union card.

My dear boy, Mazdaznan has no organized membership, therefore who could appoint or elect anybody? Are we not free agents?

Tell me, who elects a chemist and makes him a chemist? If the chemist does not bear a certificate from some organized institution is his chemistry wrong? If a mathematician is not certified by some "recognized" institution does that make all his caculations haywire? Or does chemistry and mathematics stand on its own merits?

Now, while you have heard it taught and while you have read it in print, that Mazdaznan is Science and Faith, would the science and the faith in practice qualify the messenger, or does somebody have to appoint or elect him? Can you not tell the tree by its fruits?

You are sure that I am not following in the footsteps of Dr. Hanish, and I am equally sure of it, too. In fact I am standing alone and minding my own, so I don't have to follow anybody. Is that not Mazdaznan? Or is that one of the first things the student learns? And when I learned it well enough, does is disqualify me?

You seem to be like our "government". They pay out billions to educate the children to think and live as near as possible to the highest human ideal. And of course, that means a Christian. But now they are locking up every Christian or charging him with conspiracy, because he is a conscientious objector and his soul revolts at contributing to the mass murder of men, women and children.

Who appointed the Good Samaritan to take care of the man who had been waylaid, robbed and wounded? The "authorities" passed him by and ignored him, but the Good Samaritan took it upon himself to aid the man in need.

Now you ask me whether I am self-styled and self-titled. All I can say to you is, I am doing the work. Why is the "temple crowd", the priest, the Levite, not doing the work needed? Why are they more concerned with pleasing Mr. Roosevelt and the FBI?

As to my disseminating occult knowledge. I am not instructing anybody in "occult" knowledge. When I speak of telepathy I speak of it as I speak of radio. Of course, none of us knows the secret of electricity and of the ether waves, but we know it works. So, as long as I receive messages which prove themselves authentic and work out advantageously in this crisis, during the rule and ruin regime of Mr. Roosevelt, why should I not explain in detail the source of my "conspiracy with foreign powers" which prompts me every day to expose the duplicity of our Chief Executive? I believe in telling the truth. There are millions of people who know of instances where telepathic messages prevented disaster.

I claim no new prerogative in Mazdaznan, when I announce the simple fact that since those "called" failed to attend to business I am doing it, which, of course, makes me the Ambassador at large. That is not a prerogative unless the good Samaritan exercised a prerogative. That is a burden, my dear boy, a task. Naturally, "he who is greatest among you, he shall be your servant". Call it a prerogative if you please.

The "Rose Cross" is on the front page of the paper and the "Sun Symbol" is "in the background" for the same reason that your nose is in front and your heart is hidden way back behind bones, flesh and hide. Or would you carry your heart on the tip of your nose, because it is the finest and most important organ in the body?

Now you are telling them. Certainly, my friend. Why should the Jews outfigure me when I can run circles around them, even at figuring. Numerology does the trick in my favor. It's selfpreservation.

Sincerely, KOSTI.

DWINDLING SAMARITAN TRIBE OBSERVES BIRTH OF DAUGHTER

JERUSALEM— Great ado was made by the fast disappearing Samaritan community on Mt. Gerizim near Nablus of the birth of a daughter to Wigieh Fraeg, a member of the tribe. The Samaritans were once a thriving community, but inter-marriage, and deaths have gradually reduced them to a handful.

Duty vs. Personal Interest

So many people have protested that I should not drag personal affairs with Marion Fay into The Broom, that I begin to realize what a good thing I did. So I am keeping it up. My purpose is to smoke out Miss Fay who shrouds herself in mystery. A person who works day and night for a Roosevelt dictatorship in the U. S. A. is simply up against it. If kept a "secret" her work flourishes, if made public, let's see what happens!

So far people who know Marion Fay personally, have not only not offered any objections but agree with us that she is fourflushing. And that explains her allegiance to the New Deal. She and FDR are two of a kind.

In Germany Hitler had just such female agents, like Miss Fay, spread the notion that Astrology proved Hitler to be the divinely appointed leader who'd free Germany. And gullible women worshipped Hitler. This helped considerably to establish him.

Miss Fay's work as a masseuse is on women. They gab and that brings up Astrology. Then they hear from "Queen Isis" that FDR is an "Aquarius", and during this "Aquarian age" he is "divinely inspired" to lead US.

Political agents in our midst for the Communistic New Deal will always be getting the spotlight in THE BROOM.

When I warned against Upton Sinclair, people laughed. But he came very close to winning the governorship. They stopped laughing. Making people, and gullible women gab more than anybody else, believe that God appointed FDR our Leader whom we owe personal loyalty, is the most dangerous and effective political propaganda for the 4th term. If FDR is elected again, he will claim a popular "mandate" to conscript labor permanently and then Miss Fay will be happy that her dream came true. We shall have the "American" version of Stalin-Hitler-Mussolini-Hirohito, their four freedoms in one.

WOMEN'S VOTE. A Gallup Poll last week reported that women are a bit more inclined to favor President Roosevelt and the Democratic Party than men. Women also take a somewhat different attitude toward various Republican candidates, being more in favor of Gen. Douglas MacArthur than the men are, and slightly less in favor of Wendell Willkie.—The Progressive.

Intellectual Honesty

RUTHKEN HILTON

Many years ago, when Ruthken Hilton was yet living in Lowell, Massachussets, she wrote me a letter discussing individual problems. She encouraged me to keep on the path I was traveling, and her mother published my praise in the little magazine they issued, in glowing terms. Ruth closed her letter with "To thyself be true, and it follows, like day follows night, that you cannot be false to any man". On that note I accepted Ruth as a friend and opened my heart to her. Her niche is still her own therein, I never forgot her.

But Ruth has changed. Her allegiances are personal and therefor changeable with the winds and the fogs. Sometimes her outlook is befogged. She is one of the surviving Temple girls of the Mazdaznan royal household, in Los Angeles, at present. Because I remained true to myself all these years and did not change, therefor had run-ins even with her mother and Dr. Hanish, Ruthken forgot what she had impressed upon me and which I still follow. And so last year, at the Gahanbar where I was forbidden to speak by Emanuel Bachman, Ruth spread the rumor that I was "a dangerous man" who would get people in trouble with the FBI. And all the cowards ran for cover; forgotten was "Stand Alone and Mind Thy Own", I was NOT one of their OWN, the FBI, though, was. This for the people who are pledged to stand for PEACE, always, for Mazdaznan teaches HOW to withstand war at all times. I did it, they didn't DARE!

I LOVE THE JEWS, NOW THEY MUST BEHAVE

I was sitting at a table eating my lunch at the Cafeteria when two readers of the BROOM arrived with their trays, looked around, could find no free table, so they asked me for permission to sit with me. I folded the daily paper I was reading and made room for them. While eating, John remarked, "The other day at Lodge meeting a brother brought up the talk about you, de Aryan, and another brother present, immediately said that you could be bought. I never butt into conversation, but that was more than I cared to let pass. So I asked him to cite an example when you were bought. I said that I knew you for many years, disagreed in many things with you, but I stand with the Voltaire principle of freedom of speech. Others joined in and it was the general consensus of all present that you could not be bought. I even said that if we were to compile a list of honest people in San Diego, you would head the list. The brother who at first charged you with corruption had not a word to say in substantiating his charge. Then I told them, there was just one thing where you and I completely disagreed, de Aryan. That is your attitude towards the Jews".

"John, I am sure you are mistaken. You agree with me even on the Jews", said I. "You see, I love the Jews, so I make them behave. Could anyone love them any better?"

And James and John broke out in a peel of laughter. Said James to John, "Next time I have a disagreement with you, I'll use de Aryan's line, I love you and now must make you behave", and with these words we all got up and went about our particular errands.

AFTER ISABELLA PAWNED HER JEWELS

It was the Jews of Spain who financed the "fantastic" scheme of the Genoan seaman, and there were many Jews on the three ships that undertook the historic voyage. The first man to spot land was Roderigo Triano, a baptized Jew who secretly practiced the religion of his ancestors—a Marrano. It was he who awakened the sleeping crew and pointed to the great wonder.—Dr. Henry L. Wiser in The Jewish Voice.

FIELD TAX. Overriding the strenuous objection of the Roosevelt Administration's Senate leadership, the Senate voted 37 to 26 last week to adopt the so-called Marshall Field amendment to the pending tax bill which would limit the amount of tax reduction by individuals because of businesses which regularly lose millions. Marshall Field III, heir of the multi-million dollar department store fortune, annually loses millions of dollars on his English and American racing stables and his two newspapers, PM in New York and the Sun in Chicago. Doubt was expressed whether the amendment would bar Field from deducting the losses of his papers because these properties have been incorporated to prevent full taxation.—The Progressive.

Many American soldiers are brooding about the infidelity of their wives at home, Rabbi Barnett Brickner of the National Jewish Welfare Board reported last week after circling the globe in a tour of war theatres. TWO MILLION DISABLED IN WAR PREDICTED

WASHINGTON— Two million Americans might be disabled in this war, Millard W. Rice, service officer of the Disabled American Veterans, told a senate subcommittee.

With 11,200,000 men and women in the armed forces this year, Rice said 850,000 would be disabled if the percentage of casualties in the first world war is maintained. Rice testified in connection with mustering-out pay legislation.

"Willkie's Freak Campaign Cost Him The Election"

(The following editorial from the pen of Hudson DePriest appeared on November 7, 1940, in up-state New York newspapers. Ex-governor Friend W. Richardson of California ordered 100 copies of it. Mr. Willkie's activities today give to this article a timely and indeed a prophetic interest).

The oddest, the strangest, the saddest election in American history has come to a close. It is feared by many that it was our LAST ELECTION—that we are headed toward a ONE-PARTY SYSTEM, like those overseas, where elections are held only to record an official "ya" to edicts.

Unless the electoral college should revolt, reassert its constitutional privilege and select a man of its own choice, the unwritten law against a Third Term Despotism has been repealed forever. The death of any safeguard 150 years old is a sad event to believers in American liberty.

Wendell Willkie was a real American fighting man, but his own actions brought about the defeat that finally fell upon him.

Was he a real Republican—a true convert? He never said a good word for the old Republican party, nor so much as mentioned the party PLATFORM.

Perhaps he was ONE-HALF "New Deal-Socialist", one-fourth old line Democrat, and the remaining fourth a politcal "potpourri".

He was "too much like Rosevelt", millions said. He was but a shadow, and smaller imitation, of the real thing, said others; and millions fell off the fence because they preferred the original to its imitation.

No opposition party can ever hope to win by FAILING TO OPPOSE.

There was serious need for a REAL OPPOSITION PARTY, to oppose the New Deal's dangerous war-mongering FOREIGN POLICY and dismal Socialist fallacies.

But there was in this country a powerful group dead-set against ALLOWING THE AMERICAN PEOPLE TO VOTE ON THE QUESTION OF WAR OR PEACE !

This sinister group was back of the freak but powerful movement to FOIST WENDELL WILLKIE UPON THE G. O. P. at Philadelphia.

The delegates at Philadelphia looked up into GALLERIES that were "packed" with paid (?) imported claquers, who chanted the trained refrain, day and night, "We Want Willkie".

Then the 67,000 synthetic telegrams to the puzzled delegates, who has been selected by the "democratic process" and nearly 1,000 of whom were instructed for or preferred regular G. O. P. candidates, like Dewey, Taft and Vandenberg.

Some of the Pro-Intervention War monger group really preferred FDR and thought of Willkie as a Trojan Horse to insure FDR's re-election.

They BLITZKRIEGED the befuddled exhausted delegates and, refusing adjournment late at night, they conjured them into naming Willkie, a life-long political enemy, as their standard-bearer. He was to most of them an absolute unknown.

His conduct of the campaign was most strange. He WASTED SIX WEEKS of valuable campaign time between nomination and acceptance speech.

Up to that speech he stood "tops" in public opinion, by every poll.

In that acceptance speech he committed political SUICIDE. And then waited another MONTH before starting the campaign, allowing the unfavorable public opinion to grow and HARDEN AGAINST HIM.

He made more enemies and lost more friends in a shorter space of time than any other candidate ever did. The political polls revealed the tragic losses.

As the campaign progressed it seemed incredible that one man could "commit political suicide" so many times and still live.

He was obstinate in his views: he listened to no advice, until it was too late. He could not be reached by letter, and telegrams remained unanswered. He was cold to congressmen, senators and GOP stalwarts.

Republican ex-governor Osborne of Michigan called him a "vulgarian". Republican ex-governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania said, "he will never do".

He lacked tact and diplomacy. He showed little or no appreciation of the support and opinions of great newspapers.

The powerful Pulitzer "St. Louis Post-Dispatch" paid thousands of dollars in advertisements in New York and Washington papers denouncing Roosevelt as a "dictator committing an act of war" in the gift of destroyers to Britain.

Willkie handled this situationi clumsily and the great paper finally turned against him, implying that Roosevelt was the lesser of two evils.

Said the Post-Dispatch: "If Mr. Willkie is less likely to get us into war, he should have said so again and again with the greatest clarity and force, and he should have made it so by disapproving some of the President's measures. He has not done so."

Mr. Willkie professed strongly to believe in "the American way", which he did not understand.

Mr. Rosevelt understands "the American way" but does not believe in it. He believes in his "new order".

There was a real issue, one of many in this campaign: ONE-MAN GOVERNMENT. But poor Willkie never mentioned it until near election day.

Because he seemed to believe in it himself. It was constantly "I, I, I," throughout the campaign, what "I" propose to do, when the American way is to say, "We", what "we" the G. O. P. propose to do. The opposition played up this error and the public was quick to see it.

This was early presented to Mr. Willkie in letter and published paper, but he never saw either.

Pictures were published of Willkie, surrounded by bushels of letters, but they were unopened and he was reading none of them.

Another issue, the most important home issue, was "New Deal SOCIALISM". He was blind to this question until near the end of the campaign. Perhaps he is "socialistic" at heart? Didn't he organize a SOCIALIST CLUB while a student at Indiana University?

He was never a BUSINESS MAN: he never "sweated blood to meet a pay roll". He was only a good corporation lawyer, who, for what reason no one seems to know, was promoted to the presidency of a great utilities company.

He seemed to know but little more about ECONOMICS than FDR, whose knowledge thereof is supposed to be about 40 degrees below ZERO, (believing in plowing under, destroying crops, etc.), while Willkie's is probably no more than 40 degrees above zero.

He approved the infamous "Wage-Hour" tyranny, Wagner act, and other prosperity-destroying New Deal Socialist measures, without suggestions of amendment or change.

If this campaign had been a CRUSADE OF A PARTY and NOT ONE PERSON, the Middle-Class Americans, who were snowed under in the election, might have gone to town.

As it was, the sub-Middle-Classes were quick to sense that here was a rank amateur challenging their office-glamored friend, who was a professional, and they swung their power for the professional.

Unfortunately, making it a PERSONAL FIGHT cost Willkie the election.

Lincoln won his first great victory on PRINCIPLE, not on personality. All great historical victories, which endured, were based on some principle.

Only the THIRD TERM issue saved Willkie from losing every state in the Union, and he lacked the vision to sense its importance until near the end.

His early reference to FDR as "champ", lost him the vote of many of a simpleton. His intolerant and unjust attack on Father Coughlin cost him many votes.

The foregoing criticisms are not meant to be personal. We recognize Mr. Willkie's strength of personality and that, at long last, he put up a brave and courageous fight at the end. Our words are intended solely as a review of the melancholy causes which led to the crushing defeat of our "Grand Old Party".

We figure the vote losses traceable to Mr. Willkie's peculiar conduct, as follows.

War threats in Acceptance Speech	2,000,000
Attack on Fr. Coughlin	1,000,000
Conscription	1,000,000
Approving New Deal	2,000,000
Hitler Red Herring	1,000,000
Total	7,000,000

If the foregoing could have been eliminated from his political liabilities and he had measured up in other respects, there is reason to believe that Wendell Willkie would today be our President-Elect. But that is now past history. We must develop new leadership, or we have held our last convention.—H. D.

("BROOM EDITOR'S NOTE— Looking back today across the years, there can hardly be any doubt that Mr. Willkie has been a life-long international socialist, whatever the label of the different parties he has affiliated with,—first as a socialist in his twenties, then a Democrat, then a New Dealer supporting Roosevelt in 1932 and 1936, and finally as the masked stranger of the 1940 Republican campaign. The chief objection to both Willkie and Roosevelt in 1944 is that so many Americans seriously dislike both of them that it would be injurious to the national solidarity of the republic to have either as President in the critical years following the close of the war. No new American President could possibly have so many hostile critics).

What's Wrong With Beckwith ?

For ten long years L. D. Beckwith, editor of defunct NO TAXES and at present of THE FORUM, Stockton, Calif., has belabored me with deprecating epithets, when his vocabulary as a "scientist", and to boot as a "Christian", failed him. You know one can twist the meaning of words in such a way that a virtue looks like a vice. Beckwith uses the term "moralist" as an insult to intelligence, just as the American Jewish Outlook editors of Pittsburgh, Pa., use the term "caucasian and Americans!" as an insult to Jews. No decent Jew would be caucasian and American and no intelligent scientist would demean himself to being a moralist, like de Aryan, says Beckwith and those Jewish editors.

I took all this harangue good naturedly, giving Beckwith tit for tat, till the time would arrive when I may be free to disclose my hand.

Beckwith's mistake in advertising his system of economics lies in exageration. He makes a patent medicine out of it, good for the ills of men and beasts. He'll not only produce good government among crooks and imbeciles but do away with war, to boot, because God institutes his particular system as a social, natural LAW. But, of course, Beckwith does not peddle religion, he only drags God into his conversation and does not mean it. God has nothing to do with religion, of course, Beckwith is not discussing religion, only such fools like de Aryan drag God and religion into their arguments of "pure, scientific" problems, because de Aryan knows no better, he sees like through a glass, darkly. Therefor de Aryan is subversive and the preachers are faithless because they do not teach Beckwith's divine law from their pulpits. And the university professors, all are subversive, too, because they do not teach Beckwith's natural, scientific LAW from their rostrums. Everybody is subversive but Beckwith!

Now the thing to do is, state that Beckwith has discovered the principle recognized vaguely, at first, by Henry George, namely, society, as a collectivity, IS THE GOVERNMENT, and the government activities produce results which individuals, singularly, fail to produce. That, therefor, the products of partnership activities belong to the partnership. That's all there is to it.

It is so simple, so natural, so reasonable, so equitable, so fundamental, that one needs not be a university professor, a preacher, a scientist, a president or senator to see it. It needs not be preached in the churches or taught in the universities. It is elemental. It is like hygiene of washing one's face. It is moral and scientific at the same time, because where individuals appropriate the product of the partnership, they steal, and that is in the province of morality. That's where the moralist comes in, and if stealing is the cause of war, naturally, then, when people stop stealing, wars will be no more. But stealing is not merely an economic proposition but a spiritual violation of spiritual concepts, thus a simple social-economic measure, as proposed by Beckwith, will not heal the spiritual derangement from which the majority of mankind suffers.

One, then, comes back to fundamentals. What does Beckwith have? Beckwith has the elemental formula that the partnership is distinct from the individuals, in singular, who constitute the membership of the partners, and therefore partnership products are partnership—or corporation—property. In plain English, THE GOVERNMENT, as well as the COLLECTIVE service of private citizens, produces values which are NOT PRIVATE property.

L. D. Beckwith has the only true, natural, elemental, sure and equitable definition of what is public property, therefor public revenue.

It will not cure anything, except that it will permit the public treasury to pay for itself and no taxes will be needed. That's all it ever will do. Corruption will continue, wars and disease, mental, moral and physical ailments will go on as usual, but the state will be self-supporting.

When Beckwith will reduce himself to his natural stature, then he will not again encroach upon morality, religion and even God Almighty and will cease harranguing the divines and the university high falluting numbskulls, who call themselves professors because it is a good paying racket as long as humanity is still in its swaddle clothes. But at present Beckwith is an expert muckraker and knows the value of harrangue to collect a crowd.

—B—

Isn't Beckwith Queer ?

Editor L. D. Beckwith, of the FORUM, 1325 E. Poplar St., Stockton, Calif., announces from time to time that de Aryan is an horrible example of a "subversive moralist" who does not know the fundamentals of economics. Then Beckwith proceeds to quote from the speech de Aryan made before the California Supreme Court in his litigation against the Sales Tax. The Broom is the only paper in San Diego, not printed by its owner, who never paid one cent of sales tax.

Following is the item published in The Forum by Beckwith, because it "illustrates de Aryan's ignorance (?!) of economics":

COPYING AL CAPONE

Although the following comment concerns the sales tax, it applies also to the proposed tax on theater tickets here in Stockton.

Indeed the proposed tax on tickets of admission to places of amusement is a sales tax.

If you examine the idea behind the sales tax, you will find that the legislative bodies start out with the thin wedge which destroys the fundamental principle of the sovereignty of the citizen by asserting that he has no right to engage in business, but that the legislative body is willing to sell him such a privilege at so much per and under such and such restrictions, reserving to itself the authority to determine how much of a cut of the gross earnings of the business it proposes to take. In other words, the legislative bodies emulate Al Capone gangster tactics muscling in on private business and using force to cut itself in on the gross earnings of private citizens.

THE BROOM, San Diego.

Here in Stockton the "Capones" are demanding a cut of 2c on each theater ticket. This is estimated to amount to $100,000 per year and to save title-holders 16c per $100 in the tax rate (or give them that much more service for the present taxes).

Oh Migosh! Blue Hair, What Next ?

Last Saturday afternoon I left the keys in my printer apron at the shop where I had helped Akers get out THE BROOM. Fred had taken the car so I had to ride back with Spreckels.

Having returned in the afternoon to the shop I decided to take a look at the mail box, and that was splendid, because I was short in my rent money, but a good friend had $30 waiting for me at the P. O., which, of course, amply provided for my needs. I had just told that morning to Akers and Fred that it was the first time since I returned from Washington that after paying my bills I was broke and short in my rent money. Evidently I had to forget the keys, to have to return in the afternoon for them and find the surprise in the evening mail. That was lovely.

And feeling good, I changed cars at 30th and University. When I sat down I looked and looked and rubbed my eyes, but it still was blue. The lady in front of me had blue hair. And it was nicely curled, but at the roots it was brown, and evidently she did not give a hang who saw it. Then a marine and his sweetie boarded and the marine sat beside me while his girl took her seat next to blue hair, but she gave me such a longing glance, I mean at the seat I had, that I told the marine, "you ask her, if she wants to swap with me, I'll swap". He blossomed out with a smile and asked her and she was so tickled, so we swapped and I sat next to blue hair.

I thought I'd take a glance at her when she was not looking, but the old girl was all ready for me. She gave me the once over too. It certainly electrified me. She was all made up to kill. War paint, but chick and provoking. Small hands, tinted nails, but soft, languishing hands and her look was so questioning she hit my eyes.

"No, no!" said I to myself. "I talked to one once and I am still talking about her in my sleep. No, no, my girl, your hair is too blue and your face too red in exactly the right spot and your brown eyes have just too much fire and your lovely hands are just a trifle too languid. Not me, I got burned once", and I was lost in reveries and wondered whether that blond tint was natural. Why should vegetarians whitewash their face?
